

Call for Students' Workshop Designing the Design Studio

CALL!

August 27th – 29th, 2018

General Information

The students' workshop Designing the Design Studio held in the scope of 2018 EAAE Annual Conference & General Assembly, August 29th to 31st 2018, FAUP, Porto, intends to provide a platform for graduate and PhD students from EAAE school members to reflect upon the design studio and envision its challenges in the future.

Considering the conference topic design studio as laboratory for interactions between architectural education and society, students are invited to discuss their experience and aspirations in 4 multinational groups of 5 students (including 1 student from FAUP) led by 4 tutors.

For those selected and participating, FAUP will provide free accommodation and meals (breakfast and lunch) from August 26th to September 1st.
