candidacy for EAAE Council member personal statement regarding council duties (art. 17)

I have read and give account of Article 17 of the Statutes of EAAE, regarding the duties of the Council.

In this regard, next to execution of the Association's general policy, application of the regulations, and proposal of candidates of members of the Council to the General Assembly, I see my main contribution situated in taking responsibility regarding the organization of the Association's activities, particularly with regard to the EAAE Education Academy. The EAAE Education Academy has managed in its young existence to steadily organize two workshops a year, and an additional workshop at the annual conference, leading to a steadily growing community of educators. It is my intention to further consolidate and expand this tradition.

Next to this, I am happy to offer my ample expertise of organizing international workshops, conferences and seminars (cf. my CV) for the organization of future joint events with core partners, such as ACE, ELIA, ARCC and ACSA.

Moreover, as the significance of the Education Academy grows, gradually it can think of offering paid services (discounts for members) as well, thus contributing to the council's duty for raising funds, securing further growth of the association.
